

Drunk Driver

Game Name: Drunk Driver
Needed Tools: Deck of Cards
Drunk Level: Getting Started, Buzzed, Drunk, Hammered, Shit Faced
Pick as many cards as you have players. Pick one ace & one king and mix in the deck before you deal one card to each player. Players need to memorize their card. The player with the ace is the drug dealer and the player with the king is the cop.

The drug dealer must wink at the other players. Any player who sees the wink must then say "The deal is done." It is up to the cop to determine who the dealer is. For each wrong guess, the cop must drink for 10 seconds. Players may bluff and pretend they saw the wink even if they haven't which makes it a lot more fun.

This is fun with large groups of people because it is harder for the cop to guess. However, if the cop sees the wink, the dealer must drink for 10 seconds.
