

Never Have I Ever

Game Name: Never Have I Ever
Needed Tools: A Very High Sharing Threshold
Learned: State College, PA (Penn State University)
Drunk Level: Getting Started, Buzzed, Drunk, Hammered, Shit Faced

The rules are pretty simple. This game is based on getting to know one another. There is nothing better to pick up than a hot girl or guy and know what you are getting into...

The players sit in a circle or around a room and someone starts out with the phrase "Never Have I Ever" (insert something you may have done or want to find out if another player has done). If anyone in the group has done this they have to take a drink. If you have not done it you want to find out more about your friends. If only 1 person drinks they must tell a detailed story about the events. The play continues around the room until you learn everything about your friends or are burnt out from bearing your soul....

Example: If the you say "Never Have I Ever Hooked up with Someone in this Room" and only two of you party goes drink. You just learned a secret.... If only one drinks then you know someone is lying and you get the story. Have fun and feel free to get very personal.
