

F the Dealer

Game Name: Fuck the Dealer
Needed Tools: Deck of Cards
Learned: Unknown
Drunk Level: Getting Started, Bzzed, Drunk, Hammered, Shit Faced

The dealer holds the deck of cards and the other person has to guess what card (just the number) is on the top of the deck.

If the first guess is correct, the dealer has to drink for 10 seconds.

If the first guess is wrong, the dealer says either higher or lower and the player guesses again.

If the second guess is correct, the dealer has to drink for 5 seconds.

If the second guess is wrong, the player drinks for as many seconds as they were off from the actual number.

The dealer, then, puts the card face up on the table so everyone knows which cards have been used.

After 3 people in a row were not able to guess the card by their second guess, the dealer passes the cards to the next person
