

Drinkball

Game Name: Drinkball
Needed Tools: Beer & Paddles & Ping Pong Balls
Learned: Unknown
Drunk Level: Getting Started, Buzzed, Drunk, Hammered, Shit Faced

The game involves two teams of four players who each have one can of beer at their corner of the table. The goal is to hit your opponent's can with a ping pong ball and your opponent gets to chug his beer while the opposing team tries to catch the ball. Play alternates from teammate to team and then to the other team. If during play an open can is knocked off the table by either the ping pong ball or in anyway by the team defending the can then the beer must be replaced with a new can. The team that finishes their beer's first is the winner.
